Honorable Paul H. Douglas
Chairman, Joint Economic
Committee
Congress of the United States
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I have read with pleasure your letter of 28 February 1964 expressing the Committee's appreciation for our assistance in providing data which was included in the study entitled "Annual Economic Indicators for the USSR."

We have been pleased to work with the Committee and its staff under the procedures established by mutual agreement. I shall certainly convey your appreciation to [redacted] and his associates.
